

CITY OF SAN BUENAVENTURA HISTORIC LANDMARKS, DISTRICTS, and POINTS OF INTEREST

Point of Interest Number: 9

Historic Name: Mound Pepper Tree

Address: 5430 Telegraph Road

Designated: July 1, 1974

Description: No longer exists

The Mound Pepper Tree was located 25 feet west of the east property line of the Mound Guest Home. It was cited as the oldest and largest tree of its species in the City. It was 100 years old, 43 feet tall, 23.5 feet in circumference at it's narrowest point two feet above ground and had a 100-foot branch spread.